JOHN WATERS

a tall tale from the outback ...
Family entertainment written, narrated and sung by John Waters

After being tricked by the devious Captain Blather into riding boundary on Blather's sheep station, Pilliga Pete was at a loss.
That is, until he met a very cunning and talkative white cockatoo named Clarrie. After the normal pleasantries of a first meeting, Pete told Clarrie of his predicament.
Between them Pete & Clarrie worked out a means to resolve the situation. An elaborate plan that ended with a result that nobody could have ever possibly foreseen.
This delightful and very amusing story was written and is narrated by John Waters, one of Australia's favourite and highly respected actors.
Produced by Martin Erdman with lots of music, songs and sound FX young and old alike will enjoy this tall story set in the Great Australian Outback.
Together with John's highly descriptive narrative and the enclosed twelve-page booklet containing original pen drawings by John, who needs video?
Let your mind paint the pictures.
Pilliga Pete & Clarrie the Cocky is now available for the first time on CD.
